

All Hallow's Eve Costume Ball
“Ole Jim” Building, Gallaudet University
Friday, October 31, 2008, 8:00 PM - 1:00 AM

You are cordially invited to a Costume Ball on All Hallow's Eve.

Let's bring back the old traditions where people dressed up in costumes and met at the “City Hall” for an evening of social, activities, and contests.

Dress as your favorite character or anyone you wish you were - Wear a Costume!

Contests:

- Best Costume
- Scariest Costume
- Bring your carved pumpkin to win the best carved pumpkin!

The winner of each contest will win a prize!

Activities will vary from bobbing for apples, naming the ghost, and trick and treats will be provided!

Partake beverages such as Witches Brew and Vampire's Blood. Many surprises in store.

General admission to this eerie event will be $10. The funds from this event will go to DC Association of the Deaf (DCAD) and USA Deaf Sports Federation (USADSF) for the US Team to the 2009 Deaflympics.

Start time is 8 PM to 1 AM or when the creepy crawlers get you!

Tickets are now available for sale at the door or online at <http://www.dcadeaf.org/>
